the transaction of such business.

The Mayor sent for Judge Weller this morning and asked him to hold court one day this week in Long Island City for the purpose this week in Long Island City for the purpose of naturalizing those citizens who were entitied to their second papers. "I can't do it," and the Judge, "but I'll hold it in Jamaica." Then I throw the whole responsibility of the National ticket on you," said the Mayor.
Those people I speak of were hard-working an who can't go to Jamaica. They are entited to their full papers, and your bolitical future is a cloudy one if Cleviand does not

Judge Weller, however, was obdurate.
What Mayor Glesson will next do is a matter of speculation, inasmuch as the inspectors of election in Long Island City have refused to
